

BENEFITS FOR ITS2021 REGISTRANTS

All ITS2021 registered authors gain by default a membership status in the Institute of Intelligent Systems (IIS). As IIS members, they are entitled to:

- Discounts for all future IIS onsite and online events (i.e. NiDS conference, ITS conference , BFAL conference etc)
- Benefits in the context of paper publications in Scientific Journals related to IIS activities
- Gratis participation to online tutoring sessions on their research which we be launched in 2022.

Free of charge online participation in the NiDS Conference (<https://nids2021.iis-international.org/>)

All registered authors for ITS2021, if interested, can attend online the NiDS conference, free of charge.

In the case of physical participation in the NiDS Conference, a reduced attendance fee by 50% will be applied.

Free and reduced attendance does not apply to ITS2021 authors who have papers in the NiDS conference. These authors should pay the full NiDS conference fee for authors.
